

The illustration depicts a serene lake scene. In the center, a small wooden boat with a red and gold patterned canopy carries three people: a man in a blue turban and robe rowing, and two women seated under the canopy. The boat is on a calm body of water that reflects the sky. In the background, a range of misty mountains is visible. The scene is framed by a large, ornate, red and blue scalloped archway. The entire page is surrounded by a wide border of delicate floral and vine patterns in shades of blue, green, and gold. At the bottom, there are clusters of blue and yellow flowers.
